Digital photography: Clifton Stewart

Clifton brings us Real or Imagined Places -- a projection-based series of digital images that take inspiration from the world we live in, both historical and contemporary. Events are re-interpreted and transformed by the knowledge that the images and objects within them are toys, scaled down recreations lit in dramatic cinematic style.

Our star ... international resident celebrity:
Andrew Brooks

Andrew, who exhibits internationally, creates vistas, hyper-real worlds and imagined scenes that are created from hundreds of captured images that are both real and visions from his own imagination.

International celebrity:
Andrew Brooks

The depth and detail and even scales of his work is fascinating and engrossing at the same time as each image is examined.

“Exploring and discovering for the first time makes all of us adventurers, visitors and travelers all at the same time.”
